Mrs. Louis R. Wasey

Dear Rae:

Thank you so very much for your letter regarding my appointment to the Directorship of Central Intelligence.

Rosemary and I are just back from a fast and busy trip to Europe and I am settling down attempting to learn the rudiments of my new job.

One thing about getting back to Washington is that it will be easier to get back and forth to Cat Cay occasionally and naturally we hope we will see you down there.

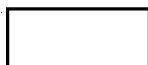

We are happy to learn through the tone of your letters that you are going forward in the same tradition as Lou. By doing this you will gain the greatest possible happiness.

Rosemary joins in our warm affections.

/S/ John
